-Biography-

Dave Johnson has performed coast to coast in America and in front of thousands of people. He has entertained for many well-known names such as Ice Cube, Gallagher, MC Hammer, Roy Jones Jr., Alan Iverson and more. Just a glance at Dave Johnson and you can tell he is a sought after entertainer that will never slow down.

Dave Johnson has been honored with many awards from his peers in the art of magic and also from prestigious hospitals for his generosity through fundraising programs he has organized.

Dave Johnson became interested in performing magic over 20 years ago and has made his full time income as a magician for the last 8 years. Living most of his life in California, Dave has now moved to Las Vegas. Entertaining all over the United States, Dave's magic, humor and mentalism is brought together in one entertaining and unforgettable experience.

INSPECTOR GENERAL
DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE
400 ARMY NAVY DRIVE
ARLINGTON, VA 22202

25 September, 2007

Dear Mr. Johnson,

On behalf of the Department of Defense, Office of the Inspector General, please accept my most sincere appreciation for your outstanding performance at our annual conference at the Rio – Las Vegas. We conducted a weeklong conference with DoD representatives from all over the country. At the conclusion of our event, as you can imagine, everyone was tired and weary of sitting in a hotel conference room for so long. You broke the monotony when you burst onto the scene with magic and flair unparalleled by anything anyone in the room had ever witnessed.

The magic you performed was truly spectacular, and several members of my group recognized your high caliber and asked if you were a regular show performer somewhere on the Strip. I can see why they asked. The manner of your performance, combined with the strikingly visual effects performed - both close-up and at a distance – left the entire room spellbound. I can honestly say that whatever tension was in the room as a result of the discussions that took place during our conference had entirely dissipated after you performed your majestic stunts. Several members of our group also confessed to me that you were the highlight of the entire week!

In short, I would highly recommend you to anyone who is considering hiring you. You are indeed a rare talent and combine a perfect mix of magic, mentalism, patience, and humor. You have nowhere to go but way up. When we have our next conference anywhere near your area, we will be reaching out to you to see if you will be available to perform once again. I especially look forward to one day pointing to a sign on a huge billboard and saying: “I actually met that guy back when he worked at the Rio.” And I’ll even have the picture to prove it!

With Warmest Regards,

Steven B. Stuller
